The Work Capability Assessment (WCA) is the test used by the British Government's Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) to decide whether welfare claimants are entitled to sickness benefits.. Since 2015, testing has been performed by the US outsourcing firm Maximus. At a typical face-to-face assessment a nurse compiles a report on the claimant's fitness for work - mainly by using the DWP's on ...

In many ways, the techniques of design thinking are well suited for the task of generating a capability model. In most of the situations I've been aware of, stakeholders for a capability model have never seen one before and have no idea how to use one. It's tough to assist in designing something that you've never used before.
