Cat Crimes I, II, III is an excellent read. Whether you love or hate cats, you will probably not be let down by this compilation of short stories. My favorite section of this book was section I. My favorite stories were "A Weekend at Lookout Lodge", "Scat", and, by far, "Last Kiss". That one is spooky.

This second collection of short mystery tales involving cats is endlessly entertaining. Some cats are good, some are evil. Some are anthropomorphized and some actually used to be humans. Most of them are a lot more than they appear to be. Any cat lover or mystery enthusiast would be delighted to read this book.
