Confessions of an English Opium-Eater is an autobiographical account written by Thomas De Quincey, about his laudanum addiction and its effect on his life. The Confessions was "the first major work De Quincey published and the one which won him fame almost overnight...". First published anonymously in September and October 1821 in the London Magazine, the Confessions was released in book form ...

JEWISH MOTHERS ARE a powerful force in a Jewish child's life. This powerful force continues unabated far into the adult years of a Jewish child. It was my Jewish mother who pampered me, spoiled me, and smothered me with a blanket of over-protectedness and over-bearingness for a large part of my ...
