Real World Research - Colin Robson - Google Books

Biography is, probably, an unlikely approach to be taken in a real world study. Apart from technical problems such as the extended time-scale needed to produce a rigorous and systematic study, it is doubtful that it will provide answers to research questions directly relevant to the kind of issues and problems found in real world research.

Robson: Real World Research, 3rd Edition - Wiley

Mixed methods research is becoming increasingly recognized as the third major research approach or paradigm (Johnson et al., 2007). But if this confident statement is correct, what do we understand mixed methods to mean?
