Silence is a critical aspect of nonverbal communication and I would say it is vastly underutilized. You can say a lot by saying nothing and weâ€™™I discuss that in more detail. 2. Allows you to think, breathe, listen and hold the attention of the listener.

Silence in Communications: 5 Reasons Why Silence Makes You

Silence, Stillness and Listening to God. There is an obvious and deep irony in any attempt to talk about silence. Itâ€™™s like trying to describe the ineffable or depict the invisible. The task itself is inherently impossible. Silence can only speak for itself: not through words, but through experience.
