Unfortunately, there are no simple steps on how to stop playing mind games in relationships, especially when abuse is involved. Remember that mind games are a form of emotional and mental abuse. There is a wide spectrum of types of abuse, and mind games can be as emotionally and mentally destructive as physical abuse.

How to Stop Playing Mind Games in Your Relationship

The best thing to do when you realize someone is playing mind games with you is to bless them with love, stop communicating, and move on with your life. Manipulators have poor personal boundaries and don't have your best interests at heart. They've developed negative coping mechanisms and probably won't ever change.
