An art film is typically a serious, independent film, aimed at a niche market rather than a mass market audience. It is "intended to be a serious, artistic work, often experimental and not designed for mass appeal", "made primarily for aesthetic reasons rather than commercial profit", and contains "unconventional or highly symbolic content". Film critics and film studies scholars typically ...

Neil Gaiman (1960-) is one of the best fiction writers in the world in my opinion. His work covers novels, short-stories, children's books, comics, film, television " pretty much the whole pop-culture gamut. This quote is taken from Gaiman's commencement address at the University of the Arts in Philadelphia, which was all over the internet last week.
